

Your service will be assessed and rated against the National Quality Standard

Talk to your service provider to learn how they are working to meet the National Quality Standard and how you can be involved.

Your service will be given a rating for each of the seven quality areas below, and an overall rating based on these results.

- 1 Educational program and practice
- 2 Children's health and safety
- 3 Physical environment
- 4 Staffing arrangements
- 5 Relationships with children
- 6 Collaborative partnerships with families and communities
- 7 Governance and leadership

Ratings will be published on the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) website at www.acecqa.gov.au

For more information, call the ACECQA hotline on 1300 4 ACECQA (1300 422 327)

Ratings against the National Quality Standard

All services must meet minimum legislative requirements to ensure the safety, health and wellbeing of children.

Services are encouraged to continually improve the quality of education and care.

Most services will receive one of these middle three ratings.

The Queensland Government monitors all services to ensure they meet their legal requirements, regardless of whether they have been assessed and rated.
